EXECUTIVE OFFICE. State Board of health of Florida, Joseph Y. l'orter, M. D., State Health Officer. lacksonville, May 25, 1903.

Windsor, Alachna County, Fla. Madam:-Responding to your request of this date, for an expresm the State Board of Health of as to the healthfulness of county in general, and Windsor, county, in particular, it is with easure that I testify to the best bility-gained from a knowledge of the community and the statistics and of this office - to the superior ulness of the town of Windsor.

As the vital statistics and health re ports of this board are collected by except in large towns and cities where there is a municipal board of health-it is impossible to give you accurate data as regards the birth and death rate of the town of Windsor; but the ananal report of the State Board of Health year 1902, shows the following og statistics for Alachua county: birth rate 9.27, death rate 2.14.

reports received at this office from the cians of Alachua county, and it is afe to suppose it shows in a general way the true life-wave of the county. and Comes to Grief.

Israel Williams, colored, decided Saturday night to take his chances at selling a little gin, but he very soon came to grief. Israel was running a colored barbershop close by Langleys old saloon, and the officers had suspected him of being guilty of selling liquor, and kept an eye on him during the day Saturday.

About 7 o'clock in the evening Policeman Cromwell caught him in the act of selling some gin to two other negroes. The officer arrested seller, buyers and gin, and notified the mayor who at once convened a special session of his court and proceeded to try the offender.

"A Lot of 'air."

The inhabitants of the little town of Somersby, in England, where Tennyson was born, are frank in giving their opinion of their distinguished fellow townsman. One old woman thus related her impressions of the poet to a visitor:

"'E was a very quolet man. 'E seemed as if 'e was 'alf asleep, with 'Is oyes 'alf shut an' peepin', an' 'e used to poke at ye, lolke i' fun. wi' 'is stick. 'E 'ad such a lot of 'air an' a long beard, an'," sinking her voice confidentially, "'e never looked very clean; no, 'e didn't."

And this somewhat startling testimony was promptly confirmed by her husband, who added: "If you'd met 'im gooin' along this
